V. Unfinished Business

Fire Department

- Probationary Firefighter Update

Chief Schilling provided a 2nd Quarter Probationary Review for Firefighter Brian McMahon.

Firefighter McMahon has taken an active role in the Department's Emergency Medical Services committee. He is progressing well and is fitting in with his shift.

- New Full-Time Firefighter Update

Chief Schilling reported Probationary Firefighters Michael Breu, and Jon Michael Monegato are doing well.

Police Department

- Probationary Officers Update

Chief Hoey reported Probationary Officer Jose Chamorro is doing well and was learning body worn cameras, earlier today. All the probationary officers are doing well.

VI. New Business

Fire Department

- Firefighter Resignation

Chief Schilling reported Probationary Firefighter Nicole Stadie tendered her resignation, effective March 14, 2022 after her shift. She accepted a position with Huntley Fire Protection District.

New Full-Time Candidate

Chief Schilling discussed wanting to enact state law allowing for the bypassing a candidate if the appointing authority believe an alternate candidate would better serve the needs of the department, then the appointing authority has the right to pass over the higher ranked person. Chief Schilling would like to offer the position to part-time Firefighter Brandon Bowen. He is an internal candidate who is an exceptional employee with no issues. Orientation and clinical time have been completed and he meets all the hiring criteria.

A motion was made by Commissioner Terry Wessel to enact state law and hire Brandon Bowen. A second was provided by Commissioner Michael Gillette. The motion carried by unanimous voice vote.
